

Outreach Committee Application Form

" The Outreach Committee is primarily focused on raising the profile of the International Clinical Cytometry Society (ICCS) and associated educational activities. The Outreach committee has the goal of increasing the awareness of ICCS membership of activities and resources generated by ICCS and also aims to bring awareness of these activities to individuals and organizations with interest in flow cytometry who are not currently members."

Expectations: Members of the committee are expected to understand and leverage the social media platforms such as Twitter, Instagram, Facebook and Snapchat to reach the widest possible audience with an interest in flow cytometry.
